PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 12/29/2021.

He later signed a copy of the conditions of supervision acknowledging an understanding of his conditions.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Mandatory Condition # 1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Re: Sprenkle, Alex DavidApril 12, 2022*Page 2

Video surveillance showed a male suspect, later identified as Alex Sprenkle, selecting and concealing merchandise and attempting to remove merchandise from packaging. Mr. Sprenkle walked toward the northwest exit, passing all points of sale without attempting to pay for the merchandise.

One of the security officers was standing in between the two sets of exit doors when Mr. Sprenkle passed through the interior doors.

The security officer spread out his arms and advised Mr. Sprenkle that he was security. Mr. Sprenkle lunged at the security officer, pushing him backward about 10 to 15 feet until his left foot became trapped between a post and the exit door, and his body impacted the door, causing the safety mechanism to disengage the lock on the door. This allowed the automatic sliding doors to be pushed outward at which time Mr. Sprenkle ran away. The assault caused pain, redness and swelling to the security officer's left foot and pain and redness in his upper right arm.

At the time of the offense, Mr. Sprenkle's identity was not known. However, based on the surveillance footage which clearly depicted Mr. Sprenkle and some of his tattoos, he was identified and later charged with 2nd degree robbery.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
